Ritter Meadows

Lakeville, MN

Welcome to Ritter Meadows, where the beauty of nature meets the convenience of modern living on the edge of southwest Lakeville. This thoughtfully planned neighborhood serves as a gateway to the southwest metro's rolling hills, lush nature reserves, and championship golf courses.

Just north of the community, the expansive 340-acre Ritter Farm Park invites you to explore the outdoors year-round. With over 8 miles of scenic hiking and equestrian trails, cross-country skiing in winter, and snowshoe rentals available, it's a haven for nature lovers.

Lake Marion, with its Casperson boat launch and newly renovated Antlers Park, is located 5 minutes to the east. The vibrant restaurants and art center of downtown Lakeville are only a few miles away, while easy highway access gives residents the opportunity to enjoy all the shopping and entertainment options that Lakeville has to offer.

Fairhill Estate at North Creek

Farmington, MN

Fairhill Estate at North Creek invites you to embrace the outdoors with its scenic ponds and integrated biking & walking trails that connect to the Dakota County trail system and beyond. Farmington is one of Dakota County's oldest communities and was on the map before Minnesota became a state in 1858.

Find adventure close at hand with Farmington's many public parks and recreation areas. Nearby Rambling River Park offers access to the Vermillion River, known for its Brown and Rainbow trout fishing. Stelzel Fields (baseball) is nearby, along with local favorite Southern Hills Golf Course.

Fairhill Estate at North Creek is in an ideal location on the north side of Farmington, bordering Rosemount, Apple Valley, Empire Township and Lakeville. The community offers easy access to shopping, dining, recreation and entertainment options.

Highlights

Sunny Hills Park located within the neighborhood

Easy access to Vermillion River and Rambling River Park

Trail system connects to Dakota County and Regional Trail Systems
